Your top billers can't scale themselves.

Training content alone doesn't change behaviour. Managers don't have the bandwidth for consistent feedback. The methods your best recruiters use never make it into a playbook - and new starters take three months to ramp.

01 Training without practice

Recruiters watch, nod, and do exactly what they did yesterday.

02 Feedback is a luxury

Managers can't sit through 45-minute call replays five times a week.

03 Top biller methods walk out the door

When star recruiters leave, their playbook leaves with them.

04 Ramp time eats your margin

Three months to productivity is too slow when desks need to bill.

What “unlimited” means.

Every licensed user gets unlimited access to the AI Call Coach - practice sessions, scorecards, and voice debriefs. We don't impose a hard cap because we want your recruiters using the platform freely. This policy keeps the service fair and reliable for every customer.

1. Expected usage

ORCA is designed for active recruiter practice. Typical heavy use looks like 3-8 full practice calls per user per working day, with associated scoring and debriefs. Some weeks will be busier than others - that is expected and entirely fine. Our infrastructure is sized for genuine human practice volume.

2. Activity outside fair use

(a) Account sharing. Each licensed seat is for one named recruiter; rotating a single login across an unlicensed team is not permitted - add seats instead (volume discounts apply). (b) Automated or non-human traffic - scripted use, bots or scrapers are not permitted. (c) Sustained extreme volume consistent with non-human generation (e.g. consistently exceeding 30 full calls per user per day over multiple weeks). (d) Resale or rebranding without written consent.

3. How we handle a review

If usage triggers a review: (i) we contact your billing/admin user by email with a clear summary; (ii) we give you 14 days to discuss, explain context, or adjust; (iii) if it continues and we cannot agree a resolution, we may rate-limit the affected user(s) or, in clear breach, suspend access pending resolution. We never silently cap, throttle or suspend without contacting you first.

4. What this does not affect

Genuine heavy use by a hard-working recruiter is welcome. Onboarding sprints, ramp programmes and bootcamp weeks where new starters practice intensively are explicitly fine. Power users running several calls per day over a sustained period are not in breach - that is the product working as intended.

5. Changes to this policy

We may update this Fair Usage Policy as the platform evolves. Material changes will be communicated to your billing contact at least 30 days before they take effect.
